

RICHMOND GOOD OLD DAYS – TRADITIONAL VENDOR APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Vendor Festival Dates: FRIDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY

SEPTEMBER 07, 08, 09, 2018

Early Bird Setup and selling is available on Thursday September 6 – for an additional $50.

For 2018, there will be two distinct Vendor areas, so please verify that this is the right application for you:

1. Traditional Good Old Days Vendors – this vendor area is located on Beebe Street and Festival Drive.
 - a. If you have been participating for more than the past few years, this is the area that you have been provided a vendor spot in the past.
 - b. This vendor area has a wide variety of items and goods for sale. It also has local service type of businesses represented, as well as non-profit groups. Some examples of merchandise sold or represented in this area are: clothing and accessories, medical, health and real estate services, local businesses and churches, sunglasses and summer items, novelties, and jewelry, etc...
 - c. For returning vendors, we will try to keep you near the same spot that you had in the past, but there may be some adjustments needed to accommodate the two distinct vendor areas.
 - d. If you think that your merchandise / service / group meets the guidelines for this area, fill out the Richmond Good Old Days Vendor Application located on the second page of this application.
 - e. If you think that you are better suited for being in the “Country Living Vintage Market” / MI Junktiques Vendor area (details provided, below), please follow the application instructions on the Country Living Vintage Market vendor application form located on the Richmond Good Old Days Festival website www.richmondgoodolddaysfestival.org All forms are located on the upper right corner of the website – labeled as Forms & Rules.

2. Country Living Vintage Market / MI Junktiques Vendors
 - a. This vendor area will be located along Washington Street – on both sides of the road. Washington is a main pedestrian entryway into the Festival grounds. It is directly adjacent to Bailey Park. If you participated in MI Junktiques last year at Richmond Good Old Days, your vendor spot was located directly in the middle section of Bailey Park. Washington Street will be a much better pedestrian traffic location.
 - b. This vendor area has a wide variety of items and goods for sale. Examples of merchandise sold or represented in this area are: vintage items or antiques, home décor, farm or own grown food fare, upscale handmade items.
 - c. If you think that your merchandise meets the guidelines for this Country Living Vintage Market area, do not fill out this application for the Traditional Good Old Days Vendors. Instead, please follow the instructions and fill out the other vendor application – “Country Living Vintage Market” application located on the Richmond Good Old Days Festival website www.richmondgoodolddaysfestival.org. All forms are located on the upper right corner of the website – labeled as Forms & Rules.
 - d. Due to space availability, and vendor merchandise / products, it is at the discretion of the Vendor Committee to determine if a vendor is better suited in the adjacent / other vendor area, regardless of which application was submitted.
